

Organized by Department for the Study of Modern Czech Philosophy,
Institute of Philosophy,
Czech Academy of Science (Prague)

Envisioning Emancipation: The Year 1968

November 2, 2018

9:30–18:00

Vila Lanna, V Sadech 1, 160 00 Praha 6

Friday, November 2

9:30–9:45 Welcome

9:45–10:30 Christine Sypnowich

Equality, Individuality and the Lessons of 1968

10:30–11:45 James Krapfl

Emancipation from What? The Meaning of Freedom in the Prague Spring and Its Aftermath

Coffee break

12:00–12:45 David Bakhurst

Ilyenkov 1968

12:45–13:30 Alexei Penzin

May 1968 on the Margins of October 1917: An Implicit Critique in Soviet Marxism

Lunch

14:30–15:15 Sezgin Boynik

„Putting the State at the Distance“: Long Decade of Emancipation

15:15–16:00 Michael G. Esch

„When the Mode of the Music Changes, the Walls of the City Shake“ Music and Revolt in the Long Sixties

Coffee break

16:15–17:00 Jan Mervart

Prague 1968 and the Chinese Influence

17:00–17:45 Zachary A. Scarlett

Provincializing the West in the Global Sixties: A Third World Perspective

Dinner