

CONFLICT AFTER COMPROMISE

REGULATING
TENSIONS IN MULTI-CONFESSIONAL SOCIETIES IN THE
FIFTEENTH CENTURY

International conference

11–12 November 2021

The Centre for Medieval Studies
Jilská 1, Prague
Academic Conference Centre

CONFLICT AFTER COMPROMISE

Thursday 11 November

9:00

Welcome

9:30

Introduction: Klára Hübner, Robert Novotný, and Dušan Coufal

10:00

Opening lecture

Nikolas Jaspert: Minority Acoustics in 15th-Century Iberia

10:40

Coffee break

Session I: Everyday life

11:00

Sandra Schieweck: Conflict regulation on the Castilian-Nasrid Frontier: Norms and practices (1246–1482)

11:30

Robert Novotný: Faith as an Argument? Confession in the Public Discourse of Post-Hussite Bohemia

12:00

Jurgita Verbickienė: Who and when decided that the Grand duchy of Lithuania was a tolerant state? The creation and regulation of Tolerance Boundaries in the multi-confessional society of Grand Duchy of Lithuania

12:30

Lunch break

Session II: Religious violence

14:30

Darius Baronas: The lack of religiously motivated violence in fifteenth-century Grand Duchy of Lithuania

15:00

Zdeněk Beran: Expressions of Persisting Conflicts in Peace Treaties of Post-Hussite Bohemia (1439–1453)

15:30

Alexandru Simon: Mass Murders, but not Schismatics?

Public lecture (Faculty of Arts)

18:00

John Tolan: The Basel Qur'an, 15th-16th centuries

Friday 12 November

Session III: Role of the ruler

9:30 Dušan Coufal: An Instrument of Hegemony or Coexistence? The Oldest Religious Privilege of Sigismund of Luxembourg for the Hussites, and Its Critique by Thomas Ebendorfer

10:00 Suzana Miljan: Somewhere in-between: Croatia, Dalmatia and Slavonia between Hungary, Ottoman Empire and Venice in the fifteenth century

10:30 Coffee break

11:00 Václav Žůrek: The Election of the King as a Solution of the Conflict and its Cause. The Case of George of Poděbrady

11:30 Giedrė Mickūnaitė: Trice a Foreigner: on words about and world around Helena of Muscovy, Grand Duchess of Lithuania

12:00 Lunch break

Session IV: Permanent conflict

14:00 Přemysl Bar: Permanent War or Permanent Peace? The Teutonic Order towards the Dukes of the Lithuania after 1386

14:30 Adam Pálka: Was It Ever Legal to Take Communion in Both Kinds after the Conclusion of the Compactata?

15:00 Coffee break

15:30 Heinrich Speich: Dominated by the Rival. Catholic Monasteries under the control of Protestant City-States

16:00 Closing remarks

Venue:
Centre for Medieval Studies
Jilská 361/1
110 00
Praha 1

Public lecture:
Faculty of Arts
Nám. Jana Palacha 2
110 00
Praha 1

Václav Žůrek

Organizers:
Robert Novotný

Dušan Coufal

Contacts:
e-mail: zurek@flu.cas.cz
telephone: +420/605531861

The Conference is part of the project:
FROM PERFORMATIVITY TO INSTITUTIONALIZATION Handling Conflict in the Late Middle Ages (Strategies, Agents, Communication) - GAČR EXPRO 19-28415X.

Centre for Medieval Studies
<http://cms.flu.cas.cz>

Institute of Philosophy
<http://flu.cas.cz>