

WARWICK-PRAGUE POPULARIZATION WORKSHOP ON MIND, ETHICS AND POLITICS

19 September 2024

Meeting room | Institute of Philosophy, Jilská 1, Prague

9.30–10.30

Jan Břeba

Democracy And Resilience: a Dialogue without Participants

10.30–11.30

Quassim Cassam

How People Become Terrorists

Coffee break

11.45–12.45

Tomáš Koblížek

Anti-Alarmist Narratives on Disinformation: What Are They and Why Do They Fail?

Lunch break

14.00–15.00

Johannes Roessler

Is there a paradox of self-concern?

15.00–16.00

Alice Koubová

Which Resilience? Thinking Democratic Subjectivity in Polycrisis

Coffee break

16.15–17.15

Heather Widdows

Looking philosophical

Reception at the venue

Organiser: Tomáš Koblížek (Institute of Philosophy CAS)

This event was supported by the European Regional Development Fund project 'Beyond Security: Role of Conflict in Resilience-Building' (reg. no. CZ.02.01.01/00/22_008/0004595), which was implemented by the project partner, the Institute of Philosophy, Czech Academy of Sciences (IP CAS).

Spolufinancováno
Evropskou unií

