

PHENOMENOLOGY OF VALUES AND EMOTIONS

PRAGUE
22-23 SEPTEMBER

INSTITUTE OF PHILOSOPHY, C.A.S.

Phenomenology of Values and Emotions
ACC Center, Institute of Philosophy, Jilská 1, Prague 1

Monday, 22 September

14:30-15:15

Cristina Vendra

(University of Ústí nad Labem)

Paul Ricoeur's Phenomenological Account of Emotions:
Affective Imagination and Emotional Attitudes

15:15-16:00

Francesca Forlè

(Vita-Salute San Raffaele University, Milan)

Embodied Emotions: A phenomenological account of the connection between emotions and bodily expressions

16:00-16:15 Coffee Break

16:15-17:00

Linus Tranas (University of Cologne)

Examples of Feeling Emotions Collectively

Tuesday, 23 September

10:00-10:45

Daniele De Santis

(Charles University, Prague)

Beauty and Metaphysics in Maximilian Beck

10:45-11:30

Wojciech Starzyński

(Institute of Philosophy and Sociology, P.A.S., Warsaw)

Emotion in Leopold Blaustein:
Toward a Phenomenology of Aesthetic and Pedagogical Experience

11:30-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-13:45

Guillaume Fréchette

(University of Geneva)

What is love?

13:45-14:30

Hynek Janoušek

(Institute of Philosophy, C.A.S, Prague)

Brentano, Dostoevsky and Katkov's "Evil Parts"

14:30-14:45 Coffee break

14:45-15:30

Robin Rollinger

(Institute of Philosophy, C.A.S., Prague)

Values in the Phenomenology of Assumptions